

Card Ministry

Purpose: to minister to people through handwritten notes of encouragement, congratulations and appreciation.

Responsible to: Kathy Schmidt is the ministry coordinator and welcomes others to join her in writing cards. Karen Kogler is the staff support person for this ministry. Please contact Kathy at ks1903@aol.com if you would like to volunteer.

Job Description: Volunteers write notes of encouragement, congratulations and appreciation. Lead staff and care ministry provide the names of recipients.

Time Required and Length of commitment: Volunteers write cards once a month. Generally, members spend about an hour a month and provide their own cards and postage.

Qualifications or special skills: A willing heart and legible writing!

Benefits to the volunteer: Not many people take time to write and mail a note any more, but when someone does, the recipient appreciates it all the more. Many such notes are kept and treasured. With a small investment of time, you can make a big difference.
